

The FCC needs to stop trying to police the public airways like its their Holy Mission from God. What you are doing is trying to limit what I want to hear as an adult, and I should be the one to make that choice. I do not need a nanny from our government telling me what is bad for me to hear and what isn't.